Partners  ➔  Benefits

Secondary schools
- Improved transition planning (Indicator 13)*
- Improved post school outcome reports (Indicator 14)*
- Improved graduation rates (Indicator 1)*
- Decreased drop-out rates (Indicator 2)*
- Increased college and career readiness rates
- Enhancements to curriculum

Postsecondary education and training programs
- Enhancements to courses of study
- Improved degree/certificate completion rates
- Increased enrollment of students with disabilities

Businesses and employers
- Meet current workforce needs
- Better prepared future workforce
- Improved community engagement
- Increase workforce diversity and inclusion

Vocational Rehab
- Opportunities to provide Pre-Employment Transition Services for students and youth with disabilities
- Increased successful rehabilitation case closures
- Maximization of fiscal and program resources

Job Centers (or One-Stop Career Centers)
- Improved performance outcomes for in-school and out-of-school youth participants
- Improved performance outcomes for adult intensive services

Adult and youth employment programs
- Higher placement rates
- Work readiness or occupational skills attainment
- Credential attainment
- More funding support due to higher placement rates

State government agencies serving youth and adults with disabilities
- Improved outcomes
- Maximization of fiscal and program resources

Developed from A Guide to Developing Collaborative School-Community-Business Partnerships, 2015

This document was developed by the National Technical Assistance Center on Transition (NTACT), funded by Cooperative agreement Number H326E140004 with the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services (OSEP). Opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the U.S. Department of Education or imply endorsement by the U.S. Department of Education. www.transitionta.org