Using Choose to Work (CTW) to Increase Opportunities for Competitive, Integrated Employment for Students and Youth with Disabilities

What is the level of evidence?

This practice was identified by Rehabilitation Research & Training Center for Evidence-Based Practice in Vocational Rehabilitation (RRTC-EBP VR), and has been labeled by NTACT as a Promising Practice. More information on NTACT’s process for identifying effective practices is available here: NTACT’s Effective Practices.

What is the practice?

This program attempts to serve recipients enrolled in the Temporary Assistance to Needy Families program who may have significant barriers to employment due to disabilities. The clients are individuals who may not require supported employment, but who have not been able to find employment due to their disability. Choose to Work (CTW) is the specific partnership between the Utah State Office of Rehabilitation and Utah’s Department of Workforce Services included in this research.
