Using Community Rehabilitation Program (CRP) Certification to Increase Opportunities for Competitive, Integrated Employment for Students and Youth with Disabilities

What is the level of evidence?

This practice was identified by Rehabilitation Research & Training Center for Evidence-Based Practice in Vocational Rehabilitation (RRTC-EBP VR), and has been labeled by NTACT as a Promising Practice. More information on NTACT’s process for identifying effective practices is available here: NTACT’s Effective Practices.

What is the practice?

Having the state vocational rehabilitation agency require Community Rehabilitation Programs (CRPs) to become credentialed. In one state the CRP can become certified as a provider of Customized Self-Employment. To earn credentials, staff complete on-line job coach training, supported employment and/or management training depending on their responsibilities.
