Using Counselor Education to Increase Opportunities for Competitive, Integrated Employment for Students and Youth with Disabilities

What is the level of evidence?

This practice was identified by Rehabilitation Research & Training Center for Evidence-Based Practice in Vocational Rehabilitation (RRTC-EBP VR), and has been labeled by NTACT as a Research-Based Practice. More information on NTACT’s process for identifying effective practices is available here: NTACT’s Effective Practices.

What is the practice?

Completing a Master’s degree in Rehabilitation Counseling is associated with stronger consumer outcomes for employment.

Where is the best place to find out how to do this practice?

You may also correspond with the RRTC-EBP-VR http://research2vrpractice.org/contact/ to request more detailed information from the original author regarding implementation of this practice.

References used to establish this evidence base: