Using Increasing Visibility and Communication/Constituent Relations to Increase Opportunities for Competitive, Integrated Employment for Students and Youth with Disabilities

What is the level of evidence?

This practice was identified by Rehabilitation Research & Training Center for Evidence-Based Practice in Vocational Rehabilitation (RRTC-EBP VR), and has been labeled by NTACT as a Promising Practice. More information on NTACT’s process for identifying effective practices is available here: NTACT’s Effective Practices.

What is the practice?

This environmental factor focuses on effectively communicating the shared vision and goals of the organization. The focus is on increasing awareness of the vocational rehabilitation program, the people served, and the benefits of services to both individuals with disabilities and the community. This visibility and communication requires intentional interactions at all levels of the agency with the public to develop community, partner, and legislative support.
