Using Resources to Increase Opportunities for Competitive, Integrated Employment for Students and Youth with Disabilities

What is the level of evidence?

This practice was identified by Rehabilitation Research & Training Center for Evidence-Based Practice in Vocational Rehabilitation (RRTC-EBP VR), and has been labeled by NTACT as a Promising Practice. More information on NTACT’s process for identifying effective practices is available here: NTACT’s Effective Practices.

What is the practice?

Resource management by transformational agency leaders reflect a commitment to acquiring, developing, and disseminating resources for responsive field operations. Exploring novel ways to fund programs, such as the “braided” funding with the state mental health authority, or grants for transition programming and successful innovative programs are examples of using resources to increase integrated employment outcomes.
