Using Strong Business Model to Increase Opportunities for Competitive, Integrated Employment for Students and Youth with Disabilities

What is the level of evidence?

This practice was identified by Rehabilitation Research & Training Center for Evidence-Based Practice in Vocational Rehabilitation (RRTC-EBP VR), and has been labeled by NTACT as a Promising Practice. More information on NTACT’s process for identifying effective practices is available here: NTACT’s Effective Practices.

What is the practice?

Strong business model refers to having an efficient business model that facilitates effective service delivery. The researched example from the Mississippi Department of Rehabilitative Services (MDRS) is based on the three key tenets of “structure, service, and sales”: structure - agency is its own state department, 501c3 embedded; service - high quality, client first, focus on outcomes; and sales - maintaining relationships with legislators, employers, partners, public.
